PASTORALLY SPEAKING

"O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all." (Psalm 103:24)

One of the things I love about Fr. Alexander Schmemmann's Journals is his description of the changing seasons at St. Vladimir's Seminary. It offers a wonderful glimpse into a core theme in his liturgical theology: the sanctification of time. Our liturgical seasons of feasts and fasts lift the passage of time up to Christ, infusing it with eternal value.

The Bible speaks of two kinds of time. "Chronos" is chronological time: weeks, months, years. Alongside that, the Church speaks of "kairos": not just time passing, but time filled with God's presence, the eternal now breaking into our lives. For example, in Mark 1:15, when Jesus begins his earthly ministry with the words, "The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand," Mark uses the word "kairos" for time--the eternal Kingdom has broken into the realm of days, hours, and minutes.

In worship, we practice living in that time. For example, on a feast day, the hymns aren't nostalgic recollections. They're in the present tense: "Today Christ is born," "Today Christ is risen."

This isn't only about what we do inside church. The humble parts of our day—the sink full of dishes, the commute, the text message we send with care—when offered with gratitude, even these become moments gathered into God's eternal now.

So perhaps the invitation is simply this: Let us stop thinking of our days as time that merely passes. Let us receive each day as a moment to be offered to God, not just remembering His Kingdom, but participating in His eternal now.

In Christ,
Fr. Andrew Jarmus, Dean

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

2027 Membership Card Going Electronic

For 2027, St. Mary's will be offering parishioners the option of completing their annual membership card electronically through a Google Form.

We are currently putting the finishing touches on the electronic form and will be testing it during September. Our plan is to make the 2027 membership card available to parishioners in October.

The electronic form will make it easier for parishioners to complete and submit their membership information and will also help the parish keep its records accurate and up to date. Parishioners who prefer a paper membership card will still have that option. Anyone who has not submitted an electronic membership card during October will receive a printed membership card by mail in November.

More information, including a link to the electronic form and instructions for completing it, will be provided when the form is released in October.

We appreciate everyone's cooperation as we introduce this new option for completing the annual membership card.

In Christ,
Scott Boris
 President, Board of Trustees

NEW MEMBER APPLICANTS

In accordance with the Bylaws, Article IV, Section 3: Notice of the new member application shall be published in the next monthly Bulletin. The following individual(s) have submitted an application for membership to St. Mary's: Elizabeth Eich, Cody Eich, and Andrew Eich. If you have any comment pertaining to any applicant, please submit it to any Board member during this 45-day period, which began with publication of this Bulletin.

NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED

In September, four new members were voted in by the Board of Trustees. Please welcome Connor Thornton, William Morris, Benjamin Sawchak, and Peter Miller as full Members of this parish.

MUSIC NOTES

Glory to Jesus Christ! As we wrap up September, I have a few reminders and updates surrounding choir.

We rehearse Wednesday nights from 7 pm to 8:30 pm, and I host a brief informal rehearsal on Saturday evenings from 4:35 pm- 4:50 pm that focuses on learning the tones and variable hymns like Troparia and Kontakia. These rehearsals are a perfect opportunity if you're interested in the music we sing or in meeting our wonderful singers. Our choir is composed of volunteers with various levels of musical experience and backgrounds, all of whom share a common love for the divine services and offering their voices for the glory of God. Joining even for one rehearsal is a great opportunity to grow in both music and our faith.

Our ministry does not stop with singing: we have lots of opportunities to deliver Scripture through the reading of Psalms, the Hours, and post-Communion prayers. These opportunities are present across services, not just the ones that have a "formal" sign-up like Liturgies. Please reach out to me at choirdirector@stmarysoca.org to find out more on how you can be involved as a reader. Parents, if you have youth who may be interested in reading (the Hours, Epistle, or Post-communion prayers) or singing in the choir, please reach out. Our choir and chanters are a living library that deliver the Gospel and Theology of the Orthodox Faith. Through our music we express what we know in a way that heightens the experience beyond mere spoken words. Our role is important to the life of the Church: we share the Good News of Jesus Christ, just as the clergy preach with the Gospel.

This month we celebrate the Glorification of the Righteous Mother Olga of Kwethluk–Tanqilria Arrsamquq–Wonderworker, Matushka of All Alaska. In accordance with the Canons of the Sacred Ecumenical and Regional Councils, when a Saint is canonized, icons and hymns are composed in prayer to share their life and story. Both are written in prayer and composed for the same purpose: teaching about the Saint's life and further deepening the practice of our faith. The icons engaging our eyes and the hymns engaging our ears help us to experience Christ and the Saints with our whole body, mind, and soul. So for our first year commemorating the feast day of our newest recognized saint, I leave you with the Troparion and Kontakion (sacred "theme songs") honoring Saint Olga of Kwethluk:

St. Mary's Orthodox Cathedral

Troparion (Tone 4): God has chosen a humble mother from Alaska to be an example for all the servants of God; He has given us Saint Olga as a helper in afflictions and as a guide to leading a life of sacrificial love. Therefore we entreat thee, O holy mother Olga: pray that we, thy sinful children, may be saved and rejoice with thee in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Kontakion (Tone 8): Guided by the heavenly light and touched by Christ's rich mercy, thy loving hands heal the wounds of those hurt in the past. Thy soft voice encourages all to remain faithful to God, for the eternal Lord will give the steadfast a crown of life. O holy mother Olga, visit us with love and reassure us, that we may accept whatever cross we must bear as chosen by the merciful God and that, through thy prayers, we do the will of God for the salvation of our souls.

Holy Mother Olga, pray to God for us!

In Christ,

Benjamin Sawchak, Music Director

"There is no command center here to issue orders. No one here arrogates to himself the right to be the final source of truth. Here, every voice is equally valued and equally important and has the right to be heard. Yes, decisions in the Orthodox Church are made slowly, but when taken collectively, they are infallible. The voice of the Holy Spirit is heard in the congregation of the church, as it was heard in the great Councils of antiquity, and also afterwards through the fraternal communication between the bishops of the entire Orthodox world, based on mutual respect, the conviction that we share the same values, that we have the same goal and ultimately our love for each other and our love for Jesus Christ."

~ Metropolitan Nicholas of Plovdiv

ST. MARY'S NEWS & HAPPENINGS

Iconography Workshop

As St. Mary's Cathedral once again sponsors the iconography workshop, Nov 1-7, you are encouraged to participate as students. The theme this year is Christ the Teacher. Jesus is holding a Gospel Book declaring: "I am the Light of the world." A 10% tuition discount is given to parishioners. Contact Marilyn Johnson at mjohnson@alumni.umn.edu, see the church website for details, or register by the QR code.

Orthodox Adult Game Night

Game Night incoming!! Bring a game, a snack or drink to share, and a friend or six to St. Mary's Parish Hall on October 10 for the first of our three game nights throughout the school year. The only requirements for involvement are 1) be over 18 and 2) be at least tangentially connected to Orthodoxy. This is a Pan-Orthodox event, so come make new friends or visit old ones from our sister churches! This is also a great way for us to get to know those inquiring into Orthodoxy and for them to be welcomed into the broader church family. So bring a game, a snack, and a friend, and we'll see you there!

Masquerade & Merlot Fundraiser

Join us for the Lynn Olson Medical Crisis Program fundraiser on Thursday, October 29, from 6:00 to 9:00 pm. Experience an enchanting evening tasting the Lanchava Collection of Georgian wine. Purchase tickets here or through the QR code.

Icons as a likeness help draw us into relationship with the holy persons depicted, within our Christian journey. This is the icon's primary role. But secondly, through its formal or stylistic qualities, an icon is a spiritual tool transforming the way we see things.

- ❖ Icons through symbolism indicate divine realities which meet everyone in the place of their journey in Christ.

Symbolism is a means of seeing a deeper meaning behind the appearance. It means the gathering together of different levels of meaning to get the essence. The opposite of symbolism, (sym = 'together with') is diabolism (dia = 'dividing against, scattering'). Symbolism is a representation that brings to light a hidden meaning.

For example, every element in an icon brings to light a hidden meaning. The wood, with its linen covering, the egg used to mix the pigments, and the gold, together represent the natural world of matter: vegetable, animal and mineral, which are offered back to God in the work. They also remind us of the passion, death and resurrection of our Divine Lord:

- the wood recalling the suffering on the cross;
- the linen reminding us of the shroud enwrapping His dead body;
- the egg being a symbol of the Resurrection.

- ❖ Taking icon class can be a spiritual discipline leading us to an unveiling a wealth of spiritual wisdom.
